The events date back to a time when the British banned weapons in Scotland, and men had to train with rocks and sticks. The event was held right outside Knoxville. CofCC members travelled from Ohio, Kentucky, North Carolina, and South Carolina to attend. Other events included a huge Irish/Scottish themed feast, body painting, and door prizes.

WEBSITE

June 2011 was the most active month for the CofCC national website ever. Lately, the amount of online donations and new members joining online have been higher than ever.

Some of the chapter websites are being revamped. The old South Carolina and North Carolina sites have been combined into the Southeast CofCC site. The old Mississippi and Nashville, TN sites have been combined into the Mid-South CofCC sites. Several new webmasters have signed on to contribute to these new sites to keep them more active.

There is also a brand new New Jersey/Eastern Pennsylvania website. You can access each of these sites from the main CofCC website at CofCC.org.

The CofCC Internet chat has been replaced with an interactive forum. The website staff feels that this forum will better facilitate networking between CofCC members.

ALABAMA

Alabama has topped Arizona in Immigrant Law enforcement. Alabama's new states-rights minded governor, Dr. Robert Bentley has signed into law a new act passed overwhelmingly by the legislature to stem the flow of illegal immigrants into the state. Some are saying that the new Alabama law is stronger than the highly publicized Arizona restrictions, some of which have been upheld in a May ruling by the U.S. Supreme Court.

Council leaders in Alabama have been in the forefront of the push for this sort of legislation in view of the Federal failure to address the problem. Alabama has taken this step before the state gets inundated with the illegal influx. Alabama has not been as hard hit as many other states, but the 2011 Census indicates that its Hispanic population is now 4%, half of which is estimated to be illegal aliens.

The devilish SPLC and some liberal religious leaders are already protesting the new Alabama statute and fomenting demonstrations. Some Blacks, stretching credulity to the limit, are even comparing the new law to the so-called Fugitive Slave Act.

Leftists, who couldn't care less about doing things in accord with the Constitution, always like to cry that constitutional rights are being violated by such restrictions, but they selectively fail to remember that the U.S. Constitution clearly provides in Article IV, Section 4: "The United States shall guarantee to every state in the Union a Republican form of government and shall protect each of them against invasion..." The influx of illegal aliens is clearly an invasion. Although the Federal government is the entity that is supposed to stop the illegal alien invasion, the State of Alabama "has taken the bull by the horns" in the face of Federal inaction. Precedent would indicate that legal challenges to this new law will fail. The passage of this new law should embolden other states to adopt similarly strict laws.

The Alabama CofCC has four active chapters with regular meetings in Florence, Cullman, Birmingham, and Montgomery. Alabama CofCC Director Leonard

Wilson puts out a regular newsletter as well.

Leonard Wilson was featured on WAFF, an Alabama ABC affiliate. The station conspired with the notorious left-wing fund-raising hustle known as the SPLC to do an attack piece on the CofCC. However the news segment actually just makes the CofCC look quite good. All the SPLC and WAFF could do was hurl childish insults. Leonard Wilson, who was interviewed in the segment, did a great job.

In Southwestern Alabama, our 4'x16' CofCC billboard has been up on Route 59 near Mobile since mid-December 2010.

GEORGIA

The East Georgia Council is staying busy in Augusta during the summer months with the following. Members are attending local city and county government meetings. Council members have spoken out in favor of cutting spending. Usually, it is black politicians backed by left-wing racial organizations like the NAACP who are seeking to increase spending.

East Georgia members have in recent months attended Tea Party events; assisted with Confederate Heritage recognitions; and donated food to food drives for those who are down on their luck due to the economy.

If you are in the Savannah or Atlanta areas and looking to get more involved, contact John at cloudminer62@aol.com.

If you are in Columbus or the southwestern part of the state, e-mail Hunter at prozium1984@gmail.com.

LOUISIANA

Rusty McGill is Chapter director for an area encompassing northwest LA and adjoining areas of AR and TX. He is in the process of attracting new members and energizing a notably lethargic area. Mr. McGill is on the lookout for stores and other locations where he can pass out the Citizens Informer or place bulk quantities adjacent to other publications to arouse interest. Readers in his area are encouraged to join him in these efforts.

MARYLAND/DC

On May 21, 2011 we listened to a report on the activities of the new organization, "Youth for Western Civilization"(YWC) whose purpose is to educate college students on what Western Civilization is all about and what it has accomplished for humanity. This is absolutely necessary since most Western educational institutions are antithetical to their own civilization and promote destructive Marxist, multicultural doctrines. The organization makes students aware of the agendas of campus agitators and leftist speakers and helps provide an atmosphere conducive to learning and an appreciation of what our ancestors have accomplished. Fourteen chapters have been established and about 14 more are expected by year's end. American Renaissance has initiated a marketing campaign to solicit funds for this organization.

In furtherance of increasing knowledge of our cultural heritage, on June 18th, we participated in ancient games that are precursors to the highland games commonly held at Celtic festivals, and attended lectures on ancient Indo-European languages given by local CofCC members.

Michael demonstrates medieval combat on chapter president Sid Secular.

We are developing raffles to be held at future chapter meetings.

We are planning a meeting during July where members can present their ideas for chapter development and for promoting our guiding principles, and to report on their own cause-related activities.

We have lined up a tentative slate of top speakers for future meetings this year including Dr. Tomislav Sunic, Sam Dickson, Dr. Spencer of National Policy Institute, and Paul Fromm.

MINNESOTA

The last few months have been tumultuous for the state of Minnesota. In the face of the 12th annual White Privilege Conference, devastating tornadoes, and a twenty day shutdown of our state government, the MN CofCC has worked hard to get our message out. Our main efforts were spent getting the word out and protesting the WPC. However, some members also volunteered their efforts for tornado cleanup and attended a speaking event with historian David Irving.

MISSOURI

St. Louis CofCC members participated in the Confederate Memorial Day observance sponsored by the Major Utz SCV Camp at Fee Fee Cemetery in Bridgeton, MO, on May 15, 2011. Despite the heavy rain, there was a good turnout and about half of those participating were CofCC members.

Several years ago, the Missouri State Legislature passed a law making it a crime for employers to hire illegal immigrants. Shortly thereafter, one of the sponsors was a speaker at our annual CofCC picnic in St. Charles County. The state has done little to enforce the law because the federal government insists that only it can enforce immigration laws. In May 2011, the U.S. Supreme Court upheld a similar law in Arizona. Under the ruling, the states can make hiring illegals a crime and even punish illegal aliens for using false documents to obtain employment. A number of states, including Georgia and Alabama, are moving ahead with such legislation. At the St. Louis CofCC monthly meeting on July 17th, they made it a priority project for their members to press the legislators to start strictly enforcing the crime of employers hiring illegal aliens.

The CARROLL COUNTY chapter met on June 23rd in Carrollton. Field Director Bill Lord gave a report on the CofCC national conference held in North Carolina in early June, and local issues were also discussed. Council Director Reverend Dennis McKay spoke about the spread of socialism in America, emanating from both Washington and from legislation at the state levels.

The WEBSTER COUNTY chapter met in Mathison in May and conducted a forum for candidates for public office who spoke on their candidacies and answered questions from the large number of attendees. President Donald Woods presided.

The CALHOUN COUNTY chapter has named former Council President Jerry Mitchell from Bruce, MS as their local Field Organizer. Mr. Mitchell has been instrumental in the success of the Calhoun Academy, a private, Christian school for grades K-12, where he is a dedicated worker.

The GREAT SOUTHERN chapter, headquartered in Jackson remains active and recently garnered unfavorable biased criticism from a local liberal rag intent on promoting homosexuality.

NEVADA

Assistant Director of the Las Vegas-based Nevada CofCC, Tom Townsend, is effectively leading the local TEA Party. His group is an effective coalition of Minutemen, TEA partiers, and CofCC members.

He focuses on the immigration issue and works on changing the minds of those who believe that "Enforcement First" followed by some grant of legal status is the Tea Party solution. He promotes "Enforcement Period!" as the only reasonable solution to encourage the illegal aliens to leave. His group makes it clear to political candidates that he will support them if they pledge to work with us and work to defeat them if they do not. The chapter distributes large quantities of literature including the "best-selling" Reconquista Plan for Aztlan and the popular "Immigration Debate Guide" as well free copies of the Nationalist Times newspaper and the Citizens Informer. The chapter participated in the July 9th Conservative Leadership Conference and the July 10th U.S. Presidential debate.

NEW JERSEY

The NJ/Eastern PA Chapter has developed a new website where members are writing articles on local news issues and chapter activities (<http://njpacofcc-wordpress.com>).

This chapter had its first membership meeting on Friday, May 27th in Central NJ featuring a presentation by CofCC Director Paul Fromm. Chapter organization and activism were discussed.

It was a casual meeting where the members discussed chapter organization plans and future activism opportunities in both states over dinner well into the late evening.

The meeting was concluded with the announcement that the Chapter intends on holding monthly meetings in order to plan and report on activism in hopes of furthering our agenda.

Several CofCC members are working to help elect a patriotic sheriff to office in a northeastern PA county. The chapter is also organizing a regional CofCC conference for later in the summer.

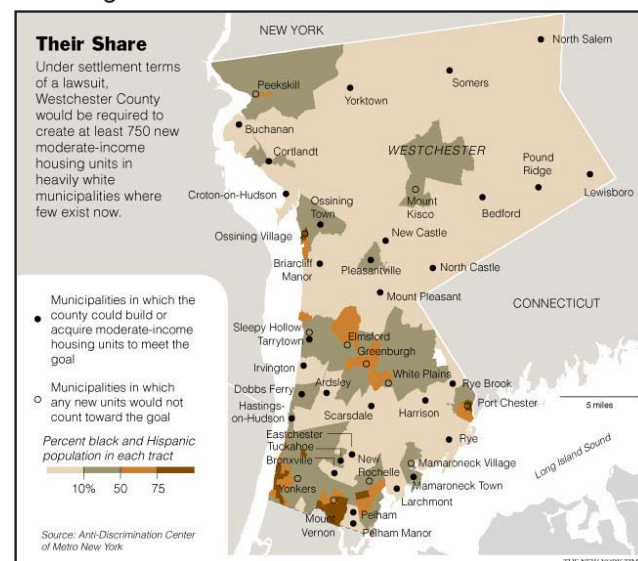

The chapter plans to attend TEA Party and patriot events regularly so we can gradually gain influence and new members from our natural constituency.

NEW YORK

The NYC-metro TRI-STATE CofCC is engaged in an ongoing effort to overturn a Soviet-style forced housing ordinance that requires that the county spend $62 million to build 750 units of "affordable housing" units to be placed amongst 31 targeted areas in Westchester County, NY. One of the provisions is that the targeted areas must be less than 10% black and Latino (Asians do not count towards the 10% minority quota).

The project was pushed on the county by the Obama administration, which threatened to sue the county for "housing discrimination."

Locally Ken Jenkins, Chairman of the Westchester County Board of Legislators who has stated that all of Westchester County must become "diverse", spearheaded the forced housing project. He is vice-chairman of the Black Democrats of Westchester, and is a former NAACP branch president. He currently sits on the executive committee of his local NAACP branch. He also hosts a public access television show where he says he discusses "issues relevant to the African-American community in Yonkers."

Mr. Jenkins also stands to benefit financially as the co-owner of ERA GEM real estate in Yonkers, NY. This is a clear conflict of interest.

Jenkins is also pushing a bill requiring all landlords to accept Section 8 vouchers in county. The bill was defeated earlier this year, but Jenkins is still trying.

The Tri-State CofCC has conducted several flyer drops, which urge the public to speak out against Jenkins' forced housing project and his campaign to get forced section 8 housing.

The Tri-State CofCC has planned more rounds of flyer drops in communities that have been targeted in the forced housing project.

The N.Y. Adirondacks CofCC continues working with local TEA Party leaders and some members are busy helping candidates.

The Chapter continues searching for a CEO buyer outside the area who will maintain the Conservative format of a local radio station after a sale to a new owner is consummated. Readers aware of such a potential CEO are urged to contact the Chapter leader. We will do what it takes to avoid a "pinko purchase."

The Chapter is working on new member recruitment through having display tables at block parties where the Conservative viewpoints on issues of concern to the community are presented.

The Chapter is hosting an Independence Day celebration for author and college professor Kevin Beary, whose classic, wryly humorous novel, The Savaged States of America, depicts an extreme "gone wild" politically correct North America 50 years in the future. Dr. Beary and other white college professors are having difficulty landing academic positions due to pervasive academic reverse discrimination.

The Chapter is working on a new and very important project that illustrates the many problems associated with transnational corporations and the tendency of modern big business to destroy the traditional community. A utility company headquartered in Spain, which has business worldwide, is trying to get approval from local governments to install a system that utilizes wind energy to create electricity in several areas across upstate New York. The systems would create "Infrasound," a kind of noisy hum that would destroy the peace and quiet of the area. The 500 foot high industrial wind turbines would be installed at taxpayer expense, and the company would employ foreign not local labor. The system would also raise electric rates and lower property values in the area. Such large scale operations destroy community by excluding small business and American labor and by creating friction amongst the pro and con factions vying to adopt or reject the proposed system. Pretending to be "green," these projects are really all about money. Should the company pull out of the project or fail in the future, the community could be left "holding the bag" in terms of not receiving any compensation since no such provisions would be included in the contract. New York State is already the worst among the 50 states in terms of its deficits and debt and this project will only make things worse. The Chapter is working with the group "Citizens for Safe Energy" to abort this project. The local TEA parties and Republicans have sold out to the corporate interests. Volunteers are being sought to distribute petitions for this preventive effort.

NORTH CAROLINA

The North Carolina CofCC Chapter is meeting each week for fellowship, and the Executive Director is regularly meeting representatives from TEA Party and other patriotic organizations to form alliances and coordinate activities on immigration issues and economic issues, including the massive job losses in the manufacturing and industrial spheres. Patriots and CofCC members and friends should call Mr. A.J. Barker, Executive Director on 336-778-9047 to arrange for a personal meeting with Mr. Barker to ascertain where their skills and abilities can be utilized to have an impact on promoting positive change in these areas."

OKLAHOMA

The Oklahoma Senate passed Joint Resolution 15 in the last Oklahoma state legislative session to put an end to the state Affirmative Action law. It invoked a storm of protest from the usual race hustlers living in Oklahoma. The issue will be on the November 2012 ballot. It will pass by a huge margin. We are working with legislators on having the ML King holiday repealed by getting it on the 2012 November ballot.

PENNSYLVANIA

Several local members are assisting a very sensible and sympathetic man to get elected to a local office. He doesn't want to be identified until it's all over.

The chapter is in the midst of planning a large scale meeting for the Fall. Details will be available later.

The PA CofCC continues to attend Tea Party and patriotic events on a regular basis to gain additional influence with and gain new members from our natural constituency.

Kim Taylor will also be holding his annual CofCC cookout this fall in northeastern PA on a private colonial era estate. Taylor wants to remind members from out of town that he can accommodate several people who wish to spend the night. The date will be announced on www.cofcc.org in the near future.

SOUTH CAROLINA

Members in Greenville are trying to bring attention to a disturbing trend of Spanish language signs in the area, including a "La Raza" auto repair shop. "La Raza" means "the race" and is typically used by gangs and the militant "Aztlán" movement.

We are currently looking for a chapter leader in Greenville who can devote a lot of time to holding meetings and events. We have a lot of great members in the area that would make good right hand men.

Copies of the Citizens Informer and SC CofCC business cards are being distributed at Dixie Outpost in Travelers' Rest.

Col. Robert Slimp continues to officiate at coalition meetings in Columbia, SC every month. These generally occur on the third Tuesday of the month.

CofCC National Directors Roan Garcia-Quintana and Col. Robert Slimp and other CofCC members repeatedly met with legislators at the State House to push them to vote on the recent immigration enforcement bill. Col. Robert Slimp even addressed the original state Senate Judiciary sub-committee which approved the bill and got the ball rolling.

Members in Charleston have been distributing SC CofCC business cards. One trick recommended by Kyle Rogers is to keep business cards in your vehicles console. Look for a car with right-wing bumper stickers when you park somewhere and then stick one on the windshield.

A state meeting is being planned for the fall. If you would like some SC CofCC business cards to pass out, or you want to get more involved, call Kyle Rogers at 843-597-4872.

TENNESSEE

On June 21, the crew of The Political Cesspool Radio Show met at a pizza restaurant to celebrate the birthday of host James Edwards. CofCC President Tom Dover made a surprise appearance at the party and kindly treated all present to lunch. CofCC members James Edwards, Eddie Miller, Keith Alexander, Henry Jones, and President Tom Dover enjoyed the afternoon together. Keith Alexander took President Dover on the Good, the Bad, and the Ugly tour of Memphis, which explores the history of the city from a racial perspective.

CofCC West Tennessee Chapter member Bill Rolan has recently commenced occasional gatherings of the Happy Hour Roundtable, which brings together white patriots from different backgrounds to converse over various topics. Rolan plans to grow these meetings until the crowd is big enough to invite local politicians and civic leaders for informal discussions about various issues of common interest. Twelve people attended the June 23 roundtable gathering at a fish and chips restaurant.

West Tennessee Chapter contact: cofceditor@gmail.com.

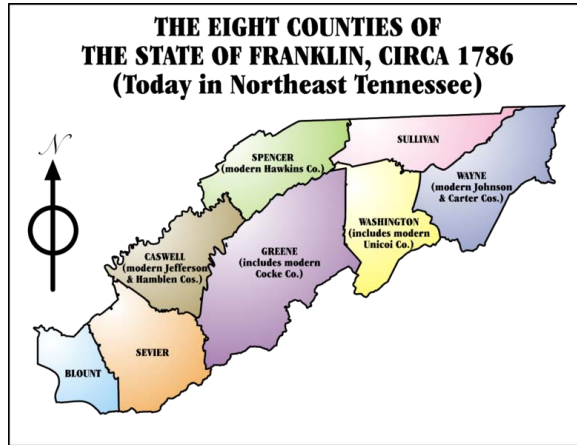

The Middle Tennessee Chapter, CofCC Steering Committee is engaged in an ongoing effort to recruit new chapter members and increase the involvement of chapter members. We are also soliciting their suggestions for chapter activities.

A chapter meeting is planned for August 2011. All chapter members and activists in the area are invited to participate.

The East TN Chapter, CofCC, will henceforth be designated as the "State of Franklin Chapter". The area was a sovereign state for several years during the 1780s when it "seceded" from North Carolina because NC was not protecting the area from Indian attacks. The experiment did not prove viable and the State of Franklin then became part of the then new state of TN.

Chapter activity has increased exponentially in the last few months with the cooperative involvement of other activists located throughout the Southern Appalachians. We hope build an activist community in region.

On June 18th, a monumental meeting took place with dozens of activists in attendance from a variety of backgrounds and organizations. Common missions and goals were established to advocate for the dispossessed white majority. Discussions ranged from local politics, religion and welfare, to the possibility of mass demonstrations. An agreement was reached concerning common goals.

The Chapter is becoming involved with "White Pride Enterprises" of New Tazewell in setting up co-ops of goods and trades amongst interested people in the area. This is seen as a means to develop ties to overcome any future economic difficulties in the area.

This activity has resulted in a seven-fold increase in the number of Chapter activists, and the Chapter is exuberant with faith and confidence in the future, and intends to keep the momentum going.

The New Tazewell area field activity involving immigration issues has been suspended since the Field Director has moved out of the area. A replacement is being sought.

VIRGINIA

The Tri-City VA Chapter covers Richmond but primarily the area just south of Richmond, VA. The chapter is new and is in the rebuilding phase, attracting and energizing new members. Mark Hopkins, Chapter Director and his wife Valerie are attending many Tea Party and Second Amendment events.

In May, ten members attended an "End Illegal Immigration" protest in Petersburg outside the "Petersburg House of Equality" (PHOE). PHOE volunteers were meeting illegal aliens and educating them on welfare benefits, public school enrollments, and obtaining free healthcare at hospital emergency rooms. The Chapter members waved American flags, and sang "God Bless America" and "Dixie" for three hours, successfully disrupting the conclave of illegal aliens and their enablers and sending them away.

Mr. Hopkins plans on attending CofCC events outside of his region, and he plans on holding joint activities with the National Capital Area chapter including protests and fellowship. Activity will be concentrated on Southern Heritage defense, protesting any assistance to illegal aliens, Gay Marriage issues, and White Rights issues.

Books to open the mind, brought to you by the publishers of American Renaissance.

Softcover, 334 pp., $24.95.

THIS is the definitive critique of the grotesque, anti-white policies that go under the name of "affirmative action." Steven Farron ruthlessly exposes the deceptions and self-deceptions that are now an entrenched part of university and corporate life.

This book would shake the convictions of the most fanatical partisans of affirmative action—if only they had the courage to read it.

"There are entire libraries of books and articles on affirmative action, but if I had to choose a single one, it would be Steven Farron's The Affirmative Action Hoax. It is a stellar scholarly performance."

— Robert Weissberg, Professor of Political Science, Emeritus, University of Illinois, Urbana

"No one can match Steven Farron for thoroughness, clarity, and utter disregard for taboos. There is no better introduction to the subject of racial preferences."

— Jared Taylor, Editor, American Renaissance

Introduction by Jared Taylor
Softcover, 119 pp., $13.95.

UNTIL his untimely death in 2005, Sam Francis was unquestionably the most profound and original thinker in racist circles. He was famous for skewering conventional pieties with unmatched wit and ferocity. This is the very best of his writing about race, immigration, and America's future.

"This is a collection of Sam's most provocative, controversial—and to his critics, most infuriating—work. It is essential reading for understanding the importance of race in politics, and demonstrates why Sam Francis remains so influential on the American right."

— Jerry Woodruff, Editor, Middle American News

"Nothing engaged Sam's analytical and expository talents more than the science and politics of race. No subject was more vital in his lifetime, nor more taboo."
